Annual Report 2012-2013

Katonah Museum of Art
“Ice Age” to the Digital Age provided a fascinating look into the world of computer animation, exploring how art and technology combine to create fantastic stories for the big screen. The exhibition was particularly popular with school groups, engaging over 2,000 students.

Funding for this exhibition was generously sponsored by Jeanne Markel and Chris Wedge; Twentieth Century Fox Films Corporation; ArtsWestchester, with funding from Westchester County Government; New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature; and the Museum’s Exhibition Patrons. In addition, the Jacob Burns Film Center and Katonah Museum of Art partnership was sponsored in part by Jon and Nancy Bauer; Teresa and John Donkin; Gerald and Anita-Agnes O. Hassell; The Lubin Family Foundation; Yvonne and Leslie Pollack; Rebecca and Arthur Samberg; and David Swope.

September 16, 2012 – January 20, 2013

- “Ice Age” to the Digital Age: The 3D Animation Art of Blue Sky Studios in the Beitzel and Righter Galleries
- Creating Characters with Peter de Sève in the Pollack Learning Center
- KMAA Small Works in the Foyer
- Joseph Wheelwright: Tree Figures in the Simpson Sculpture Garden
The finest American quilts—from the early 19th century to the present—were on display in Beyond the Bed: The American Quilt Evolution, representing a multitude of styles, techniques, and geographic areas. More than 10,200 visitors enjoyed the exhibition and hands-on activities in the Quilt Lab.

Funding for this exhibition was generously provided by The Coby Foundation; Ralph and Ricky Lauren Family Foundation; Karen B. and Arthur G. Cohen; Deborah Mullin and John Chatzky; Edwin Binney III Foundation, Bank of America, N.A., Co-Trustee; ArtsWestchester, with support from Westchester County Government; New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature; and the Museum’s Exhibition Patrons.

February 24 – June 16, 2013

- Beyond the Bed: The American Quilt Evolution in the Beitzel and Righter Galleries
- Ann Jonas: The Quilt in the Pollack Learning Center
- Quilt Lab in the Project Gallery
- Tiny Quilts in the Foyer
- KMAA Featured Artist—Ron Topping
- Andrea Lilienthal: Six Ladders (opened April 21) in the Simpson Sculpture Garden
- Paul Chaleff (opened April 21) on the Front Lawn

Programs

With an active membership of 275 artists, the KMAA provides exhibition opportunities, networking support, stimulating lectures, and travels throughout the year.

Public Programs Highlights

Caramoor @ KMA, a musical co-production with the Caramoor Center for Arts and Music, brought a lively trilogy of roots, jazz, and classical concerts to the Museum’s Sculpture Garden.

Sponsored by Ellen and Bob Grimes

Kite Festival, with kite-making workshops at the KMA, followed by stunt kite performances, and lots of kite-flying practice with professional kite flyers.

In the Beginning Gallery Talks with Blue Sky Artists, Directors and Producers

Many thanks to all the Blue Sky talent who shared their time, expertise, and fascinating stories during our gallery talks and hands-on animation workshops.

The Unexpected Quilts lecture series, with Kaffe Fassett, Robert Shaw, Stacy Hollander

Generously supported by Mary Lou and Ira Alpert, Victoria and Stephen Morris, and Pat and Nick Ohnell. Additional funds provided by the New York Council for the Humanities

The Quilt Lab, where Museum visitors sewed hundreds of log cabin squares into 10 colorful quilts.

Quilt Lab Supporters: Calico Corners; Fabric Traditions; Northern Star Quilters Guild, Somers, New York; The Quilt Shop, Danbury, CT; Westminster Fibers

Katonah Museum volunteers, staff, and trustees donated 10 quilts made in the KMA Quilt Lab to My Sister’s Place and the babies born at Bedford Hills correctional facilities.
EDUCATION

Young Artists 2013
The Young Artists exhibition celebrated 30 years with art by 720 students from 45 schools and received 2,000 visitors in one week!
Sponsored by Anonymous and Martha and Richard Handler

Exhibition Inspired Art Programs
Picture This! (sponsored by Target and Little Joe’s Books) Saturday Story Time, Art Adventures, Tuesdays For Tots, School’s Out/Arts’s In, Stroller Tours (snacks provided by Tazza Cafe), and KMA Family Days were enjoyed by 1,893 children.

School Visits
Our school audience included 4,700 students from 125 schools, and 125 teachers and children’s librarians for educator programs and professional workshops.

Thinking Through Art: Young Artists and Writers
In-depth school and Museum partnership using art as a springboard for writing and critical thinking, serving 500 students from seven schools.
Made possible through grants from New York State Council on the Arts, the Peckham Family Foundation, and Target

Museum Programs Reaching Underserved Audiences
SmArt Girls led Museum visits for 50 guests.
Sponsored by Eileen Fisher and Newman’s Own Foundation

Artejuntos / ArtTogether, a bilingual art and culture-based family literacy program for at-risk preschool children and their families. Eighty-five families with pre-K children were creatively engaged in art and Museum activities that support school readiness and the joy of learning.
The Katonah Museum of Art is a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) museum chartered by the New York State Board of Regents as an educational institution. Funding comes from grants, foundations and corporations, individual contributions, membership, admissions, benefits and events, and investment income.
